We are a family with 2 boys ages 6 and 9. We never tried sailing and this was a great chance to try the boat and have a skipper to show us what it is about. Jochen spent 4days with us and showed us maximum of what we managed in the given time. We always agreed on some plan and then followed it. We have made two overnight trips, to Skradin and Trogir, both have great atmosphere and offered a very pleasant change to the vast and quiet sea. Every day we also stopped in some quiet bay for a swim to make the journey also interesting for the kids. The last day the sea became windy and waves became larger and we were very happy to have an experienced skipper with us who I believe Jochen is. The fact that we could use the "home" marina (Marina Frapa) whenever we wanted free of charge was a great bonus and ensured more privacy for both parties as Jochen has got an extra place to stay and also a second boat. The overall trip was a very good value for money and a fantastic experience. Jochen, thanks for having us, we feel that you live up to Airbnb original ideas...

The Atlas was a great ship to sail on. Stable, comfortable, well appointed, and easy to sail. We arrived to a plate of fruit and a bottle of bubbly. Jochen served as our skipper and proved to know the area and sea conditions well. After seeing our familiarity he let us sail and proved to be a great instructor as well. Our intention was to sail and we had three wonderful days on the water. However one could happily use this boat as a floating room and entertain themselves for a few days with the excellent facilities at the marina - pool with massages available, a night club, several coffee shops and wifi. We will definitely come back and would love to sail this boat again. Hopefully Jochen will be expanding his fleet!

Was Jane an deiner Unterkunft besonders gefallen hat:

Thank you for your hospitality and for your willingness to maximize the time on the boat. And most importantly for trusting us to sail and imparting us with your wisdom (sailing and otherwise!). We had a great time!

We booked the "Atlas" with Jochen as our skipper. Our target was to enjoy the amazing sailing area of Croatia and to become familiar with the handling of a sailing yacht. Thanks to Jochens skipper experience, we did it with a lot of fun. The home port of the Atlas is like a 4 Star Hotel with a big Swimming pool, Shops, Bars and a good Restaurant. The Atlas is a nice, handy and modern equipped sailing yacht, and it was a pleasure to us it. At the end Myra enlarges our crew and we appreciated her friendly hospitality.

Eine super Unterkunft mit einem tollen Gastgeber. Für uns war es ein kleines Abenteuer auf dem Meer, im Hafen zu übernachten. Wir haben uns dank Jochens außerordentliche Gastfreundschaft sehr wohl...
